

Heavenly Father,

We come before you today with hearts filled with gratitude for the sacred bond of marriage that you have ordained. As we stand together as a couple, we seek your guidance, wisdom, and blessings upon our union.

In your word, you have shown us the depth of your love and the sanctity of marriage. As it is written in Ecclesiastes 4:9-12, "Two are better than one, because they have a good return for their labor: If either of them falls down, one can help the other up. But pity anyone who falls and has no one to help them up. Also, if two lie down together, they will keep warm. But how can one keep warm alone? Though one may be overpowered, two can defend themselves. A cord of three strands is not quickly broken." May we always be reminded of the strength and support we find in each other, as well as in you, our steadfast anchor.

Lord, grant us the grace to love one another unconditionally, just as you have loved us. Help us to cherish each other's strengths and weaknesses, and to always strive to uplift and encourage one another. Let our marriage be a reflection of your boundless love and grace, demonstrating forgiveness, patience, and kindness in all that we do.

In times of joy, may we rejoice together, giving thanks for the blessings you have bestowed upon us. In times of sorrow, may we find solace in your comforting embrace, knowing that you are with us through every trial and tribulation.

As we journey through life together, help us to continually grow in faith and unity. Guide us in aligning our wills with yours, so that our marriage may be a beacon of light, illuminating the path for others to follow.

Lord, we commit our marriage into your loving hands, trusting in your divine plan for our lives. May your grace sustain us, your love strengthen us, and your presence dwell within our home now and forevermore.

In Jesus' name
